Dear Mr. Wells,

As an update, I thought you might enjoy knowing that the State of South Carolina has secured the preservation of the Jocassee Gorges area which was featured on Wednesday, October 15, 1997 of the Association of Southeastern State Park Directors Conference. A copy of the press release and newspaper article is enclosed.

Thank you for the many kind letters I have received regarding the Conference. The South Carolina State Park Service is proud to have had the opportunity to host this event.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Harrison
Director
SC State Park Service
