4 STATE PARKS THAT DON'T FEEL LIKE STATE PARKS

Love the beach on pages 20-21? Find it for only $110 a night, year-round, at Grayton Beach State Park. Grayton offers great views and clean, basic accommodations—as do all the other picks below. With beautiful parks like these, you won't miss room service.

1 Grayton Beach State Park, Florida

The no-frills cabins are about a three- to five-minute walk from the white-sand beach and emerald waters. Cabins come with a queen-size bed and two twin sizes. All have a futon in the living room, a screened back porch, kitchen, gas fireplace, microwave, dishwasher, outdoor grill, and air-conditioning. The rate is $110 every day of the year. #### 2 Hanging Rock State Park, North Carolina

Stunning views, 18 miles of trails, cascading waterfalls, a spring-fed mountain lake, and great fall color for $100 a night. www.ncparks.gov

3 Guntersville State Park, Alabama

A four-year, $25-million renovation produced a fabulous lodge by one of the South's largest lakes. Just $100 a night during summer. www.visitlakeguntersville.com

4 Indian Lodge, Texas

In the heart of the Davis Mountains, the big-sky country of the South, for less than $100 a night. www.tpwd.state.tx.us
